State the Year for Which You are Rendering Property

Tax Year

Instructions for Filing

General Instructions: This form is for use in rendering for taxation real property that you own or manage and control as a fiduciary on January 1 of the year for which the property is rendered. Unless required by the Tax Code or the chief appraiser of your county appraisal district, rendering such property is optional. The chief appraiser may require rendition that is not mandated by the Tax Code. If you do render, you must use this form or a form approved by the Comptroller containing information which is in substantial compliance with this form and you must deliver the form to the chief appraiser after January 1 and not later than April 15. On written request by the property owner, the chief appraiser shall extend a deadline for filing a rendition statement or property report to May 15. The chief appraiser may further extend the deadline an additional 15 days upon good cause shown in writing by the property owner.

If you have previously filed a rendition form and it remains an accurate rendition of your property for this year, you may check the box below and sign this form.

Tax Code Section 22.26 states:

- (a) Each rendition statement or property report required or authorized by this chapter must be signed by an individual who is required to file the statement or report.
- (b) When a corporation is required to file a statement or report, an officer of the corporation or an employee or agent who has been designated in writing by the board of directors or by an authorized officer to sign in behalf of the corporation must sign the statement or report.

Tax Code Section 22.01(c-1) states:

In this section:

- (1) "Secured party" has the meaning assigned by Section 9.102, Business & Commerce Code.
- (2) "Security interest" has the meaning assigned by Section 1.201, Business & Commerce Code.

Tax Code Section 22.01(c-2) states:

With the consent of the property owner, a secured party may render for taxation any property of the property owner in which the secured party has a security interest on January 1, although the secured party is not required to render the property by Subsection (a) or (b). This subsection applies only to property that has a historical cost when new of more than $50,000.

Tax Code Section 22.01(d-1) states:

A secured party is not liable for inaccurate information included on the rendition statement if the property owner supplied the information or for failure to timely file the rendition statement if the property owner failed to promptly cooperate with the secured party. A secured party may rely on information provided by the property owner with respect to:

- (1) The accuracy of information in the rendition statement;
- (2) The appraisal district in which the rendition statement must be filed; and
- (3) Compliance with any provisions of this chapter that require the property owner to supply additional information.

If you make a false statement on this form, you could be found guilty of a Class A misdemeanor or a state jail felony under Penal Code Section 37.10.
